PRESS NEWS

TdB Labs announces that Magnus Sävenhed has been recruited as the new CEO.

Uppsala, June 14, 2024. TdB Labs AB announces that Magnus Sävenhed has been recruited as the new CEO of the company. Charlotte de Belder Tesséus, owner and current CEO of TdB Labs, continues as responsible for business development and member of the board.

Magnus has a long and wide experience from the pharmaceutical industry and comes most recently from the role as Managing Director for Novavax AB, where he was employed as production manager in 2005 and has been CEO since 2018. Magnus has a master's degree in engineering biology from Linköping University of Technology and has experience from companies such as Pharmacia, SWECO and ÅF.

TdB Labs AB is a family-owned biotechnology company located in Uppsala, founded in 1991 by Dr. Tony de Belder, a pioneer in polysaccharide research. We specialize in the development, manufacture and sales of high-quality polysaccharides, with a particular focus on dextran derivatives, to support research and drug development. We have a strong international presence with customers among some of the world's leading Universities and companies.

"We are very pleased to welcome Magnus Sävenhed to TdB Labs, which marks the beginning of a new era for the company. The company is in a growth phase and Magnus will lead our continued development with a focus on optimizing processes and increasing our production capacity to strengthen our competitiveness and take greater market shares. With his solid leadership experience and expertise in technology, production and process development, Magnus will be an invaluable asset for the company's future success," says Charlotte de Belder Tesséus.

"I am extremely impressed by what TdB Labs has achieved and it will be very stimulating to build on these successes together with the team. TdB Labs has shown that there is great potential in the technology and for me it will be an exciting challenge to develop the company to meet customer demand," says Magnus Sävenhed.

Magnus takes on the post of CEO on 16th of September.
